

A photograph of a gravel garden path lined with various plants and trees. The path is made of light-colored gravel and is bordered by large, smooth stones. On the left side, there are large green plants with white flowers, and on the right side, there are smaller green plants. In the background, there are trees and a building with a brown roof.

Annual Report
2006-2007

Ontario
Horticultural Association